Friday evening October 1, 1920, an honorary party was given in honor of our Most Worshipful Prince and Drill Master, K. S. Marney of A. R. Chinn's Paladium Guards No. 2 of St. Joseph, Mo. This great man was really worthy of the party and in his younger days and up to the present time he and the famous A. R. Chinn's Paladium Guards' name and fame stand abroad throughout the country. He has always won a prize of some kind. The present presiding prince of this department spared no pains in making this occasion a grand affair. Much credit is due the members who gave willingly towards securing a present for him and much more credit is due the past Presiding Prince, Prince Smith M. Crews, for his kindness with a willing hand towards helping to produce this grand affair. A vote of thanks was turned to the Committee. The Hall was beautifully decorated with flowers and drapery. The evening gowns worn by the Prince and Princess and also the visiting guests were very pretty. The Gold Medal was presented by the present Drill Master, Capt. Willis Williams.

CARROLTON A HOSPITABLE PLACE TO VISIT.

By Mrs. Corrine Bodine.
Mr. and Mrs. Amos Smith of Kansas City who spent part of their honeymoon with us left for their home Thursday evening singing loudly the praises of Carrolton and feeling deeply indebted to their relatives and many friends for the royal manner in which they were received and entertained. They feel too much credit cannot be given to Mr. Albert Thomas who spared neither money, time or pains to make them stay pleasant. During the past week they were highly entertained by the following friends: Mr. Albert Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Drake, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Gatlin, Mrs. Rosetta Morris and Mrs. Corrine Bodine. We trust the moon and evening of their married life may be as cloudless and beautiful as the morning.

NEGROES URGED TO ENCOURAGE FARM PRODUCTION.

By Ernest W. Miller.
Possibly too little attention and encouragement is extended our men and women in the rural districts. If we would keep in touch with today we must keep in touch with the other fellow, know what he is doing and how he is doing it. Men and women are born with anxiety to know more about everything; their ability to actually do big things have made them practical. Getting away from production is like getting away from the family fireplace after shoveling snowballs into the blazing fire on a cold New Year's eve. If we would have better homes, larger bank accounts, wider fields of industry, we must encourage the source from whence it came, for the astounding fact is that our country grew from a few scattered farms and settlements along the Atlantic coast to the greatest nation in the world.
